Sir Robert Falconer,

University of Toronto,

Toronto.

Dear Sir Robert,

Enclosed are two letters just received from Sir Henry Miers and Professor Joly in answer to invitations to stop at my house during their stay in Toronto. I have answered saying that you have asked me to be one of those who will meet them on their arrival here on Sunday morning and that my home will be at their disposal if the Reception Committee should decide to send them to it. I am leaving town this evening and shall be absent for about a week, but shall be home at latest on Friday the First of November. If I can assist in any other way than above indicated in entertaining the professors while they are here my services are entirely at your and their disposal.

Yours sincerely,

J. B. Tyrrell.

Dear Mr Tyrrell

I am greatly obliged for your kind invitation. I fear, however, I cannot leave my work as there are so many engagements that separate mean comparison I am of engagements.

With best thanks & hope to see you

Yours truly

Dear Tyrrell

Many thanks for your kind letter and invitation. We are here in the hands of a Committee which has arranged everything for us and we have no time for ourselves; I do not know yet what arrangements have been made in Toronto, but rather expect that there also we shall find everything arranged beforehand, so I expect that I had better not accept any invitations yet.

But I will let you know later. In any Case we shall meet while I am there and I am none the less grateful to you for your kind offer of hospitality even though it may prove to be impossible for me to accept it.

Yours sincerely
Henry Adams.

Please thank your wife for her kind consideration.

Dear Mr. Tyrrell:

Many thanks for your letter, with the enclosures from Sir Henry Miers and Professor Joly. I have made arrangements that all the members of the deputation should stay at the King Edward Hotel, and I should think that in view of the present uncertainty as to health and domestic service Mrs. Tyrrell would not wish notwithstanding her kind offer to be overburdened. However, if you will call at the King Edward Hotel early on Sunday morning I shall be glad if you would look after Dr. Joly for most of Sunday. The only arrangement yet made for Sunday is tea in the afternoon at Sir Edmund Walker's. It is very good of you also to offer to entertain Sir Henry Miers. I had, however, spoken to Professor Coleman about his as he is an old friend and there will be no difficulty in that matter. I am sure I can leave Sir Henry Miers and Professor Joly in the care of yourself and Professor Coleman.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
